Law Firm

Established 1972

▶ Goldfarb, Levy, Eran, Meiri & Co., the second largest law firm in Israel, employs 220 people – 125 lawyers (26 of whom are partners), 30 law interns, and an administrative team. The firm works in all aspects of commercial and administrative law: capital raising, international transactions, securities, taxation, mergers and acquisitions, litigation, real estate and planning and construction. The firm enjoys a leading status in Israel, with extensive professional experience in representing high-tech companies.

The office advises Israeli companies on transactions with foreign concerns, and foreign companies on their activities in Israel. The lawyers have vast experience in securities law and corporate law in the United States, Western Europe, and other countries. About one-third of the lawyers in the office are certified by various bar associations in the United States, in addition to certification in Israel.

Goldfarb, Levy, Eran & Co., which was founded in 1972, merged in 2006 with the law firm of Dankner-Lusky & Co. and changed its name to Goldfarb, Levy, Eran, Meiri & Co.
